

First Nations, Metis An Inuit Student – Additional Residence Consideration

This application is for First Nations, Metis and Inuit Learners who have been issued an offer of admission for Fall 2014 but have NOT been issued an offer of admission to residence for Fall 2014. First Nations, Metis and Inuit applicants who wish to be considered for a space in residence may submit this application for additional consideration through Indigenous Services. Residence Admission decisions are made on a case by case basis.

Completed forms can be faxed or emailed to the attention of Jennie Anderson, Indigenous Recruitment & Transition Coordinator at the contact information provided above.

APPLICATION DUE BY 4PM ON THURSDAY MAY 21, 2015

Date:
Name:
Home Address:
McMaster Student Number:
Indigenous Community/ Nation Affiliation:
Have you Accepted an offer of Admission at McMaster University?
Have you already applied for the McMaster Residence waiting list?
Anticipated Program of Study:

Please answer the following three questions (200 words x 3 question = 600 word maximum):

1. What does being a part of a community mean to you?
2. As a first year student at McMaster you will have the opportunity to become a part of many different communities. Please give examples of communities you would like to become involved in.
3. How will living in residence improve your experience as a first year student at McMaster?